SUNFLOWER COMPETITION

Thanks to all who have joined in - it has certainly caused lots of conversation and a competitive spirit! You can definitely spot the sunflowers - well most of them!

The competition will be judged by two avid gardeners from Kirby Fleetham on Bank holiday Monday, 31st August. This will be followed by Prosecco on Jubilee Green from 2.00pm. Please take time to wander around the village to view the sunflowers and then bring your own glass down for Prosecco and a socially distanced chat.

Please could you place a label on your gate to show you are entering the competition. (Go on . . . do it!) If you could write on your house name / number, the height of the sunflower, width of the head (not including the petals) and the title of your 'best dressed' sunflower it would be helpful. Your sunflower may be re measured!! Labels can be picked up from the bus shelter or ask any member of the Community Events Committee for delivery.

Prizes will be awarded at 3.00pm on Jubilee Green.

Good luck!

Do not forget to continue the Sunflower Trail in Hackforth and Langthorne. Which village has managed to grow the tallest??

Thank you to Dan, Dave H, Dave C, Simon P for cutting the grass in areas of the village that require it. It looks very smart - so much neater! Thanks too to everyone else who contribute to keeping the village tidy.
